

ACADEMIC/ PROFESSIONAL WORK HISTORY AND EXPERIENCE:

PROFESSOR IN OBSTETRICS AND GYNAECOLOGY, UNIVERSITY OF JOS. NIGERIA.

Oct 2001 to date

1. Active participation of Clinical services to Obstetrics and Gynaecology patients including conducting deliveries (normal and Caesarean).
2. Active participation in supervision of Postgraduate Residency programme in Obstetrics and Gynaecology.
3. Involved in the development of Curriculum for the management of high-risk pregnancies in Nigeria.
4. Initiated update courses in on skills acquisition for skilled attendance at childbirth in Northern Nigeria and supported by UNICEF
5. Extensively involved in research design and management including monitoring & evaluation (M&E) on safe motherhood including Emergency Obstetric Care (EOC) for the reduction of maternal mortality in Nigeria since 1990.
6. Directing research activities in the Collaborative research with the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, USA, in the Minority research training (MIRT) programme on biomedical research resulting in the publication of several quality research articles in national and international journals.
7. Participated in the development of curriculum for the training of skilled attendants at delivery. SOGON safe motherhood project sponsored by Macarthur Foundation.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR IN OBSTETRICS AND GYNAECOLOGY, UNIVERSITY OF JOS. NIGERIA.

1998-September 2001

1. Active participation of Clinical services to Obstetrics and Gynaecology patients including conducting deliveries (normal and Ceasarean).
2. Active participation in supervision of Postgraduate Residency programme in Obstetrics and Gynaecology.
3. Involved in the development of Curriculum for the management of high-risk pregnancies in Nigeria.
4. Initiated update courses in on skills acquisition for skilled attendance at childbirth in Northern Nigeria.
5. Extensively involved in research design and management on safe motherhood including family planning services and research, post-abortion care (PAC).

Involvement in Safe motherhood Activities:

- a. Health Management including administration and Leadership skills.
- b. Conducted needs assessment in Health facilities for Women and Children Friendly Health Services (WCFHS)
- c. Conducted evaluation studies on the services provided by Traditional Birth Attendants at childbirth in Northern Nigeria.
- d. Development and field-testing of certification tools for the improvement of quality of care in maternal, neonatal and child health.
- e. Development and management of University Collaboration Centres for capacity building of health workers including Post graduate doctors, midwives on Safe motherhood initiatives.
- f. Development of research collaboration in Human reproduction with the University New Mexico Medical School, Albuquerque, USA.
- g. Published several scientific articles on magnitude, trend and strategies for reduction on maternal mortality in Nigeria
- h. Project Coordinator, SOGON Safe motherhood project, Plateau State, Jos, Nigeria; sponsored by Macarthur Foundation.

DEAN, FACULTY OF MEDICAL SCIENCES, UNIVERSITY OF JOS (September 2006 to 2008)

Administrative as well as professional responsibility of a Faculty with the largest (17) Departments in the University of Jos.

ASSISTANT PROJECT OFFICER-HEALTH (Malaria/PHC): Abuja Country Office: Oct 2003 to December 2004.

1. Roll Back Malaria including the use of ITNs in homes and health facilities in Nigeria. ITNs Massive Promotion and Awareness Campaign (IMPAC) implementation for scaling up ITNs use all the UNICEF focus States, LGAs and communities in Nigeria.
2. Provide support for Intermittent preventive treatment (IPT) of malaria in Pregnancy and participated in developing policy, guidelines and training manual.
3. The use of Client Oriented provider efficient health services (COPE), as strategy to improve quality of care in all Health centres in Nigeria. Health Policy and Systems Reforms in Nigeria
4. Participated in the development of the proposal written for Global Fund support on anti-malaria combination therapy (ACT) in Nigeria.
5. Internal UNICEF Operational processes for programme implementation and management. Programming components of advocacy, capacity building, service delivery, monitoring and evaluation were satisfactorily implemented.
6. Participated in the project development of the DFID assistance to UN System programme for achieving millennium development goals 4, 5 and 6 in Nigeria.

ASSISTANT PROJECT OFFICER-HEALTH: ENUGU ZONAL OFFICE: JULY 2002-July 2003

Implementation of UNICEF Country programme of Co-operation in the A Zonal office consisting of:

1. Women and Children Friendly health Services as a concept for maternal mortality reduction in Nigeria, including improving the skills of service providers (Doctors and Midwives), upgrading health care facilities, providing equipment and supplies to the health centres for access to quality Emergency Obstetric Care (EOC).
2. Roll Back Malaria to reduce maternal and childhood morbidity and mortality through the support for the provision of ITNs, Home management of simple malaria by mothers and care givers in addition to orienting patent medicine vendors (PMVs) on the provision of and dispensing quality anti-malaria drugs.
3. Health Policy and Systems Reforms to improve access to quality health care.
Internal UNICEF Operational processes for programme implementation and management.

Programming components of advocacy, capacity building, service delivery, monitoring and evaluation (M&E).

Jul. 1978-Jun.1979:	Pre-registration House Officer, ABU Hospital, Kaduna.
Jul. 1979-Jun.1980:	NYSC Medical Officer I/C District Hospital Ila-Orangun, Oyo State.
Oct.1981-Dec.1984:	Registrar in Obstetrics & Gynaecology, ABU Teaching Hospital, Zaria.
Jan.1985-May 1985:	Senior Registrar in Obstetrics & Gynaecology, ABU Teaching Hospital, Zaria.
Jan.1986-Aug.1987:	Clinical Research Fellow/Honorary Registrar in Obstetrics and Gynaecology, Milton Keynes, Hospital, Milton Keynes, England.
Sep.1987-Nov. 1988:	Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist, Limi Hospital, Zaria.
Dec.1988-Oct. 1991:	Lecturer/Consultant, Obstetrics and Gynaecology, University of Jos and Jos University Teaching Hospital, Jos.
Oct.1991- 1998:	Senior Lecturer/Consultant, Obstetrics and Gynaecology, University of Jos and Jos University Teaching Hospital, Jos.
Jun. 1996 - Mar.1999:	Chairman, Medical Advisory Committee (CMAC), Jos University Teaching Hospital, Jos.
Oct 1998 - Oct. 2001:	Associate Professor in Obstetrics and Gynaecology, University of Jos.
Oct.2001- date	Professor of Obstetrics & Gynaecology, University of Jos
July 2002 to July 31, 2003	APO, HEALTH, UNICEF - Field Office, Enugu, Nigeria.
August 4 to Oct.2003:	Returned to the University to continue research, teaching, Clinical service and community development.
Oct. 24 th to Dec 2004:	APO (Malaria/PHC), UNICEF Country office, United Nations House, Diplomatic Zone, Abuja, Nigeria.
2006 to 2008	Visiting Professor of Obstetrics & Gynaecology, Benue State University, Makurdi